Benedictine Sisters Retreat Center Facilities and Restrictions: All rooms are air-conditioned, with ceiling fan and private bathroom. Due to the Sisters' continuing concerns about COVID-19, wearing of masks while indoors is appreciated but not required. Meals begin with dinner on Tuesday, May 23rd and end with breakfast on Friday, May 26th. No alcohol consumption or smoking are allowed on the premises of the Retreat Center. As of May 2023, Ledger's Steakhouse & Grille may still require guests to mask upon arrival and when not seated at the table.

The Retreat Center in Cullman, Alabama, is located approximately 55 miles from Birmingham-Shuttlesworth International Airport (BHM). Guests are asked to make their own transportation arrangements; ride-sharing to and from the airport may be coordinated through an online application (more details at a later date).

NOTE: Priests who wish to concelebrate the Eucharist during the meeting should bring an alb and stole. Also, a letter of good standing/suitability from your diocese or religious superior must be submitted noting each location at which you will concelebrate – the Benedictine Sisters Retreat Center in Cullman and/or the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Hanceville. Please send letters of suitability (postal mail or email) to all three of the following:
(see reverse)
